CHAMPIONING END-OF-LIFE CONVERSATIONS: THE CONVERSATION PROJECT

Wednesday, September 27, 3:30 – 4:30 pm ET

Communication/Advance Care Planning was one of the focus areas of the Palliative Nursing Summit. HPNA in collaboration with the Institute for Healthcare Improvement – The Conversation Project, is offering this free webinar to the members of all nursing specialty associations who participated in the summit. This offering will highlight resources for both individuals and clinicians to have conversations about end-of-life care wishes. This program is approved for 1.0 CE.

Objectives:

- Describe the origins of The Conversation Project and the need for individuals to have conversations about their end-of-life care wishes.
- Identify the resources available to help patients and families have the conversation.
- Recognize some of the frequent issues that arise for individuals when they have these conversations.
- Register at:
